SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It was a typical day in the life of a reporter. I arrived at Washington, D. C., where my assignment was to cover President-elect TOM SPRAGUE'S inauguration. JIM STEINKE, top photographer for the New York Tribune, was also there at the inauguration. After the inauguration, we sat talking and reminiscing about high school days, until my plane was ready to leave.

When my plane arrived back in Buckland, my boss, BILL BAKER, who is the owner and editor of the Buckland Herald, handed me a plane ticket to New York to write a story about the famous "Johns and Presar Circus," which is owned by LARRY JOHNS and JOE PRESAR. So, an hour later, I boarded the New York bound plane and took off. Imagine my surprise when I discovered my seat mate was Mrs. Bruce Eisley, the former SHIRLEY DOERING.

Shirley told me that her home was now in Florida, where her husband, BRUCE EISLEY, is a scientist at Cape Canaveral. She said that her brother-in-law, Joe Presar, sent her a ticket to see his circus, and so she came up to Buckland to leave her three lovely children at her mother's home.

A few minutes later, the stewardess came and said that the pilot wished to see us. We wondered why, but we soon found out. We went into the pilot's cabin, and who was there but DARRELL FARLEY, as pilot, and GALE JOHN, as co-pilot. I found out that Darrell had been married for two months and that Gale had two children, both boys. We sat around talking until we landed in New York.

At New York, as I got into a taxi, I found the driver to be BOB HOWELL. I told him that I was sent to New York to do a story about the "Johns and Presar Circus." He said that he had seen it the week before.

As I checked into the Hotel Magnificent, I was informed that the manager was none other than RICHARD MILLER. He invited me to his home for lunch to meet his beautiful wife, but I declined his invitation, as I told him I was going to write a news story for the Buckland Herald.

At the circus, there are many different attractions. LEWIS COOK and CHARLES RAMGA formed a famous clown team called "Louie and Chuck." They had traveled with the circus through England and Europe. Besides the clowns, there is BRAD MILLER, who is known as the "Human Cannon Ball." Every night he is shot out of a cannon one hundred feet into the air.

In the ring now is JOE ROLSTON and his lions. In the top of the tent on the trapeze is "The Monkey Lady," better known as LINDA MINKNER. She earned her nickname by her famous feats of swinging on the trapeze by her feet. In real life, Linda is Mrs. Joe Liechty and the mother of four children.

With my assignment done, I headed back to Buckland, Ohio, where my husband, Lee Fry, and my five children were waiting for me.
